LIKE REAL WAR.

The Nicaragua Port Likely to Be Bombed.

WASHINGTON, April 29.—The state department has been advised that the British will bombard Corinto unless the indemnity is paid. A special to the New York World from Managua, Nicaragua, says: Communication with Corinto has been interrupted. A rumor is in circulation that the United States has requested Great Britain to grant Nicaragua two weeks to pay the indemnity before resorting to force and that Great Britain has agreed to do so. Government officials will only say that there is nothing decisive yet. Nicaragua's answer to the ultimatum was handed Adm. Stephenson Friday. It refused to accept England's proposals.

If the occupation of Corinto fails in its object and Great Britain should declare war on Nicaragua, it is said that the administration would still decline to interfere, so long as the war was carried on, not for the aggrandizement of Great Britain or the acquisition of territory, but for the sole purpose of collecting the indemnity. To go beyond that, however, the administration, it is said, would consider it a violation of the Monroe doctrine.

INDEMNITY FOR EX-CONSUL WALLER. WASHINGTON, April 29.—Ex-Congressman John M. Langston, the attorney of Ex-Consul Waller, who is imprisoned at St. Pierre by the French, is determined to push the case with all the power he possesses. "In the first place," said he, "we propose to maintain the concessions obtained by Mr. Waller in Madagascar. The whole purpose of the prosecution and persecution of Waller by the French government was to despoil him of the concessions he procured. The French government realizes the concessions are of immense value. Then we intend to force the French government to pay to Waller an indemnity commensurate with the persecution he has undergone. He was given a mock trial, was threatened and finally conveyed in irons to France, where he now lies in prison awaiting a civil trial."

PROBE THE MYSTERY.

English Detectives Working on Ledger Murder Case.

Sensational Story Told by a Colored Woman.

DESCRIBES THE DEED.

Ledger Chloroformed and His Body Carried Off.

GUTHRIE, Ok., April 29.—The Ledger murder mystery continues to be the principal talk of the day. The police arrested Louise Nolan, a negro woman of ill repute who was an inmate of the place where Frank Ledger, the wealthy young Englishman, is alleged to have been murdered. Under pressure the woman told a sensational story to the officers to the effect that Ledger was brought to the house; that he was taken into a spare room by two men and there chloroformed. The body subsequently was handed out a window to a policeman and a porter, who were paid to weight and throw the body into the Cottonwood river. Ledger was known to have considerable money, and the theory is that Ledger was murdered for his money. The case has been worked by Scotland Yard detectives under pay of the British crown, and two men are now in jail charged with the crime. The progress of the unraveling of the sensational case is being watched with interest by the British consul at Kansas City and Pinkerton.

OFFICERS OF THE LAW AMBUSHED. CHICAGO, April 29.—A Herald special from Pittsburg, Tex., says: In a remote section of Titus county, 2 miles of here, Constable Oliver attempted to arrest a man named Belcher for some minor offense. Belcher resisted, and in the shooting which followed, Constable Oliver was shot through the hand. Oliver withdrew and secured reinforcements in the persons of three men named Cooper, Frye and Ritchie. Returning to make the arrest, Belcher and the male members of his family ambushed the party at Black's Ridge on White Oak river, just at dark, pouring a heavy fusillade into the posse from rifles and revolvers, mowing down the entire party. Later reports from the scene state that Oliver and Cooper were instantly killed, and Frye and Ritchie fell mortally wounded. The Belchers mounted their horses and fled, leaving the dead and dying officers in the road where they fell. Armed posses are on the trail, but it is not believed the Belchers will be captured alive. They are desperate men and more bloodshed is looked for.

A WHITECAP OUTRAGE. KNOXVILLE, Tenn., April 29.—A special from Sevierville, the county seat of Sevier county, where a notorious gang of whitecaps have held forth for two years past, says Thomas Gibson, a well-to-do farmer, was shot down in cold blood Saturday night at 11 o'clock. The story of the tragedy is told by Gibson. She says she and her father were alone in the house when three men came and tried to get her father to come out. When he refused they knocked the door down and when the father showed fight by raising a chair one of the whitecaps fired a load of shot from a double-barreled shotgun into Gibson's body and he fell dead. The young lady fled to the house of a neighbor where she spent the night, all being afraid to return to the scene of the murder, and the lifeless body lay in the doorway all night. Sixty-three shots entered Gibson's body. The whole country is excited over the deed. Gibson had received a whitecap notice a few days ago but had not heeded its warnings.
